24 <sup>1</sup> The government notes that, with the agreement of defense counsel for Mr. Williams, it had 25 previously ceased its review of jail calls (and its corresponding meet-and-confer efforts to narrow the 26 jail calls to be used at trial) so that the parties could focus their efforts on reaching a global resolution. It 27 revisited its review in light of the Court's Order. The government's review is now largely complete and 28 the attached log of recordings represents the government's good-faith effort to comply with the Court's Order. However, there remains the possibility that in the process of finishing its review of all jail calls, the government will uncover additional materials to be used at trial. The government does not anticipate that any additional recordings it discovers will materially increase the number of recordings to be used at trial. To the extent such recordings are identified during the remaining review, the government will provide prompt notice to the defense.
